

National Board of Certified Counselors

Requirements:

Must be a National Certified Counselor (NCC) or in the application process

Required: 12 semester hours (18 quarter hours), or 500 contact hours of continuing education

All courses must be for graduate credit Group and/or family counseling 2 courses on addictions covering:

- General Drug Terminology
- Specific Drug Information
- Theories of Addiction
- Medical and Psychological Aspects Assessment
- Treatment
- Special Issues

Three years of supervised experience at no less than 20 hours/week References

- Two assessments
 - One from a supervisor
 - One from a colleague/counseling professional Pass Examination for Master Addictions Counselors (EMAC)