

2024 JUNIOR Dairy Questions

1. Does a cow have teeth on the top and bottom in the front of the mouth?

Answer: No they only have incisors on the bottom jaw

2. If your heifer has dry, scaly spots on her body without hair, what is the name of the condition she might have?

Answer: Ringworm

3. How many teats should your heifer have on its udder?

Answer: 4

4. What is the name of the milk that a cow produces when she first starts milking and is fed to baby calves shortly after birth?

Answer: Colostrum

5. What is corn silage?

Answer: It is chopped corn plants with the ears of corn that is wet and packed tight in either bags or a pit

6. What is the name of a heifer or cows feed that has multiple ingredients mixed together and fed to the cattle?

Answer: TMR-Total Mixed Ration

7. Name the part of the cow's topline that is located between the withers and the loin?

Answer: Chine

8. Which of the following is not a point a judge looks for when judging a fitting and showing contest?

a) Animal's condition b) animal's conformation c) clipping d) appearance of showman

Answer: b) animal's conformation

9. Which compartment of the cow's stomach is most commonly punctured when she has hardware disease?

Answer: reticulum

10. During which season is milk in the greatest demand?

Answer: Fall

11. What is the primary protein in milk?

Answer: casein

12. At the end of a Holstein animal registration name, what do the letters E-T stand for?

Answer: Embryo Transfer

13. When you "churn" cream, what product does it turn into?

Answer: Butter

14. Which one of the following would be the least desirable feed for the week-old calf?

a) Calf starter b) whole milk c) milk replacer d) corn silage

Answer: d) corn silage

15. The hormone prolactin initiates or signals the beginning of what?

Answer: lactation

You will need to name all six parts in this diagram, in the correct order. (worth ½ point each)

